VOLUME LXIV., NUMBER 48. REDWOOD CITY, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1925. ESTABLISHED 1859

NEW PRIZE OFFER FOR NEXT TWO WEEKS, ENDING MARCH 13

Now is the time for readers to boost their favorites in the big Times-Gazette $4,000 "Everybody Wins Something" gift distribution. Your subscription given now means more credits for your favorite than it will later in the campaign. And credits win. Unlike most campaigns the credits in the Times-Gazette campaign decreases as the campaign progresses. There will be absolutely no bonus credits other than those already published and announced in the schedule.

Remember—big credits end Friday night, March 13th at 11 o'clock and the extra special offer ends on the same date, March 13th at 11 o'clock.

Cash in on Big Credits

By keeping up a fast pace until March 13th candidates will be able to cash in on the "Flying Start Offer" which includes 100,000 extra credits on every $15.00 worth of subscriptions. There is, too, the special "First Subscription Coupon" for 20,000 free credits and 250,000 extra credits if the candidate produces three one-year subscriptions or equivalent the first week after accepting nomination.

Campaign Plan Easy

There is one part of the campaign plan that is especially pleasing, to all candidates, and that is that the awards are offered for meritorious work in obtining subscriptions for The Times-Gazette. Every active candidate is guaranteed at the very least a cash commission of 20 cents on every dollar he or she turns in to The Times-Gazette in subscriptions. For those who do better than the rank and file there are purses of gold and silver and for those who are leaders, who demonstrate the best business getting ability for the Times-Gazette, there are big beautiful cars, valued at $1385 and $1075.

Extra Pirze

With the offering of the special prize of $75 in cash, it is only natural to assume that new leaders will soon be seen in the credit column of the Times- Gazette campaign. This $75 cash offer will be awarded to the candidate scoring the highest number of points on subscriptions during the next two weeks. Perhaps there is some thing you would like very much to have but just haven't had the money or felt that you couldn't spare enough to buy it just yet. Well here is your opportunity to get that very article with just a little effort as well as piling up thousands of credits toward that car of your choice.

Remeber that the winning of this special prize will not in any way interfere with the winning of one of the other prizes. It is simply an added gift that the Times-Gazette wishes to distribute to its loyal supporters.

An entirely new candidate could, with a little effor to get busy right now and win this prize and at the same time put himself or herself in line for one of the larger prizes by the end of this period. All are starting even on this added offer, which closes March 13th, Saturday night. Seventy-five dollars in 12 days, $6 a day, not so bad is it?

The public is getting interested in this campaign—really interested. In spots the interest is quite heated. And when you come to think of it, why shouldn't the public be interested? We all get excited over a game of ball or bridge, or mah jongg, and why shouldn't we get interested in a game where the stakes run up to $1385 and $1075, with other lesser stakes and commissions. It is interesting to watch the campaign grow, isn't it

Perhaps you noticed that quite a number of names have been eliminated from the credit columns Well, that's the case, even if you haven't noticed it. The campaign manager figured the "dead timber" had been carried long enough and felt he was only "kidding himself" by leaving them in.

Campaign headquarters are open this evening until nine o'clock. Might we suggest that a call at headquarters to have the proposition fully explained to you might be eminently profitable to you. There are cars, radios and cash for every active participant. The least this campaign pays is 20 cents on the dollar for what you produce and from that up to $1385 and $1075.

LOCAL MAN UNCOVERS TRAGEDY ON COAST

Mute evidence of a tragedy of the Pacific was found by Frank McAuliffe of this city when fishing off Pillar Point, near Halfmoon Bay. McAuliffe and some friends were near a reef of rocks off the point and discovered the headless body of a man caught in the jagged rocks of the reef. The body had evidently been in the water for some time and the feet, head and hands were missing. Whether the loss of these members was due to the action of the waves which had dashed the body on the rough rocks or whether they had been hacked off by human beings is an unsolved mystery.

Coroner Brooke of Halfmoon Bay and Sheriff McGovern were immediately notified and went to investigate the affair. The man was found to be clad only in a pair of light trousers which lead to the supposition that he had been engaged in landing liquor on the coast and prepared to swim if necessary. No marks of identification could be found except an almost indesernable tataa arrow on one arm.

Later at the inquest the body was identified by Axel Bjorte, another seaman, who identified the belt and trousers found on the headless, feetless and handless corpse, as an extra pair belonging to himself, which he had loaned to his roommate, Grinde. Bjorte produced a pair of trousers identical to those found on the dead man and described the belt in detail without seeing it.

Residents in the vicinity of Pillar Point stated yesterday that late in December a small boat was washed up on the rocks and that bottles of wiskey were washed ashore like driftwood. They told the coroner that the boat was one of the mosquito fleet of rum runners bringing in whiskey from a larger boat standing out at sea. The small boat is lying on the rocks on the northern coast of Pillar Point at the present time.

Bjorte, however, denied that his friend had been engaged in rum smuggling, reiterating that it was during a fishing trip that he met his death.

The remains of the dead seaman were buried in Halfmoon Bay immediately following the inquest.

OLD CREEK SCHOOL TORN DOWN THIS WEEK

The old school house on the creek, back of the city hall, has been torn down, and this week the last of the frame work of the old building was removed.

It was built in 1872. At that time Miss Mary Hanley was the teacher and continued at the litle school for many years. Another teacher who taught there for many years was Miss Mary Dugan.

The school was used off and on for school purposes until last year when the school district purchased the old high school building. Until that time it had been used for kindergarten and lower grades of the grammar school for several years.

During its varied career the old building has been used for various purposes and has at times been the scene of exercises of St. Peter's Episcopal church, the practice meetings of the Redwood City band and other organizations. Just after the earthquake several of the county offices were located in the structure until the new courthouse was completed.

MRS. M. J. DELEHANTY DIES AT HOME OF DAUGHTER HERE

After an illness that had extended over more than a year Mrs. Mary Jane Delehanty, mother of Mrs. Philip E. Brand of this city, died Saturday morning at the Brand home on Webster street.

Mrs. Delehanty came to California at the age of 14 from her home in Philadelphia, and with her parents settled in Sonoma county, where she remained until she came to make her home with her daughter here several years ago. She is survived by one brother, Samuel Cunningham of Santa Rosa. Her husband Bernard Delhanty passed away many years ago. The deceased was about 60 years of age.

Many sorrowing friends from all parts of Sonoma county were here to attend the funeral which took place Monday from the home of the family on Webster street. The services were conducted by Rev. A. E. Clay of St. Peter's Episcopal church, and the funeral was under the direction of Layng & Tinney. After the services here the body was sent to Santa Rosa for interment in the Odd Fellows' cemetery of that place.

Mr. F. W. Thompson,
My dear Mr. Thompson:

The committee in charge of the San Mateo County Boy Scout Jamboree, held Saturday and Sunday, February 14th and 15th at Burlingame and San Mateo, wishes to express to you its sincere thanks for your generous support and assistance.

The committee is deeply indebted to the merchants of San Mateo county, to the public officials, newspapermen, and good citizens generally who gave money, food, and prizes to help our cause, and whose moral support and encouragement was such a strong factor in promoting the success of our efforts.

Scouting has received renewed stimulus, and with your continued encouragement and suport we propose to make 1925 a year of real Scout achievement in San Mateo County.

Yours for Scouting,
FRANK H. THRALL,
Chairman and District Commissioner

Mrs. Stilleson passed away surrounded by her grieving family. Three daughters, Mrs. Thomas Vernail, Maud and Murra Stilleson, and one son, Clarence, survive besides her husband. Miss Maud Stilleson is teaching school at Riverbank and hurried home as soon as the news of her mother's death reached her. She arrived late last night. FOUNDER OF PIONEER CAMP DIES IN SAN FSANCISCO

Bernhard Bernhard, a native of Germany, aged 87 years, died at his home in San Francisco, Tuesday after an illness of a few days. Mr. Bernhard followed his profession as a barber in San Francisco for the past sixty-five years and was the proprietor of the barber shop in the Palace hotel for many years. In this location he had as his customers most of the men who have made history in California and all of the visiting men of promienence who made the Palace hotel their headquarters passed in and out of his establishment.

In 1880 Mr. Bernhard took his family on a camping trip to La Honda. He was so impressed with the beauty of the country that he purchased a piece of land on the La Honda Creek and established Pioneer Camp. Every year thereafter Pioneer Camp was the first to open and the last to close. It was always a place of jollity and the jovial host took pride in bringing friends from San Francisco to share his hospitality. As the children of the family and the father himself grew older the camping trips to La Honda grew shorter and for several years past Pioneer Camp has been little more than a name. With the passing of its founder it will probably be a thing of the past.

WOODSIDE

Profiting by the sad experience of last summer when several of our finest residences were destroyed by fire, the residents of Woodside are circulating a petition to be presented to the Board of Supervisors asking for the formation of a fire district in order that we may have some means of cambating the peril in the future. The water supply is so limited that some form of chemical apparatus is essential. Redwood City has generously responded to calls in the past, but the distance is so great that the flames get beyond control while waiting for apparatus which might be altogether effective if closer at hand.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Zane motored from the city on Tuesday afternoon and spent the night at their place in order to look over the progress of their new house, the construction of which was recently begun.

Bradford Leavitt arrived from Pasadena on Monday to plan improvements to his place and to prepare it for the occupancy of his family during the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jenkins entertained a large number of their relatives at a re-union on Sunday and Monday. Fortunately the guests arrived just before the storm began and were able to remain until it cleared before leaving.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron St. John have returned from a three weeks' visit to their son at Willits and will remain with Rev. Benjamin St. John for the rest of the winter.

Mrs. Florence MacArthur of San Francisco spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mighall.

Miss Phyllis Kroeck of Redwood City has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Jos. L. Ross, Jr.

Leslie C. Burnett is expected hame from the Letterman hospital this week.

Vesta Tibbs, a pupil at the Sequoia Union High School, has been at home for two weeks with an attack of influenza.

Covington Pringle has had an attack of jaundice that has kept him from the local school for the past ten days.

Several families in Woodside have been eating sparingly this week in order to be able to do justice to the baked ham dinner to be served at the Redwood City Woman's Club on Saturday evening.

Reuben Taylor has purchased an Apperson racing car of ancient vintage and opines that when he has made a few repairs and has tuned it up he will be able to show his dust to all the modern cars in the valley.

Alphonsus O'Neill has presented the local school with a fine pair of wrought iron baskets for the basket ball goals. The baskets were made by himself in the high school shops. John Volpiano has also been exhibiting some very creditable examples of his skill at the lathes of the school shops.

SCHOOL SITE COMMITTEE COMPLETES ITS REPORT

The committee of twelve citizens who since January 29 have been investigating the proposition of sites for future schools filed its report with the board of school trustees of Redwood City elementary district Thursday evening. The committee recommends the purchase of sites in various districts of the town for the use of future schools as the need shall arise. It also recommends additions to the present school buildings of the Washington and Lincoln schools.

At the meeting of the board of trustees of the school on January 29 the matter of providing schools for the future was discussed, and Superintendent Monteith reported that the Intermediate school was already filled to capacity and that the last room of the Central school was in use. By next year the schools will again be crowded, he said.

The board, therefore, appointed a committee of citizens representing the various districts included within the school district and requested that the Kiwanis Club appoint an equal number on a committee to co-operate with this committee in its survey of the needs of the district.

The committee appointed by the board of trustees was made up of the following men: Harold Simpton of the North Fair Oaks district; Clarence Pearce of Roosevelt avenue; E. J. Macabee of the Oak Knoll country; C. D. Swett of the Highlands; and A. D. Walsh and Bert Mansfield of the town proper. The Kiwanis Club committee consisted of Z. T. Thorning, Harry Groom, Elmore Hinman, Dan Flynn, Charles Dimmitt and G. B. Merrill.

This committee of twelve organized on Feb. 5 and elected Z. T. Thorning as chairman, and in turn divided itself into three committees to investigate: 1—the North Fair Oaks district; 2—Roosevelt avenue and vicinity; and 3—the necessity for enlarging the present Washington and Lincoln schools.

The report of the committees is now being considered by the district attorney and will be given in full later.

A STUDY OF CONDITIONS

WHAT would become of this county if it suddenly faced the proposition of joining itself with San Francisco? Would we be prepared to take the proper action to preserve our individuality? to protect our interests? What would be the best form of amalgamation for the residents of this county? These are the questions being studied by the committee which is investigating the question.

This committee filed a lengthy report last week in which every angle of the question is considered, and they recommend a further and exhaustive study. The committee was started originally, it is understood, by those who favor amalgamation with San Francisco, but the work of the committee seems to have been impartial and all factors of the situation have been considered.

There is little doubt that sooner or later the people of this county will have to decide for themselves whether they desire to remain as they are or join with San Francisco and assume the burdens as well as the advantages of the larger city. Whether the advantages would outweigh the added responsibilities or vise versa is now a moot question. It is hoped that an impartial study of the matter may in part clear this up. But whether or not the report shows any decided advantage one way or the other it will be of value in that it will bring into the public mind angles of the question which would otherwise have remained dark, and when the time comes that this county must decide on its future, it will at least understand the vastness of the question it is deciding.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

RECENTLY at a banquet we heard a gentleman give his first impressions of Redwood City and those impressions were anything but flattering to our town. The gentleman and his family took one look and left for a town farther north. Since that time he has become acquainted with Redwood City and has become a resident and an enthusiastic booster. Why were his first impressions so unfavorable? What else could they be? What have we done to improve our appearance to the traveling public?

If a stranger really gets into Redwood City he finds a beautiful and charming little town, which will at once attract his fancy, but not one in fifty of the general motoring public will ever get into the main part of town unless he has business here. The highway is all that is seen and the whole town is judged by the appearance of our main traveled artery.

The highway, we believe, could be made an asset to the town in appearance as it is in trade. A very little expense would make Redwood City a place to be remebered by those who pass through it on this road. We have one of the most competent gardeners now at work for the town, with a crew of men under him to maintain the city parks. If the matter of beautifying the highway were put into the hands of George Hopkins and he were given sufficient help we know that the result would be all that could be desired.

We have every advantage here to offer the tourist in the way of beauty, and it would require very little effort on our part to make Redwood City a place remembered for its beauty rather than just as a place on the highway.

THE EMPTY GUN

THE unloaded gun has claimed another victim, and Mrs. Etta Holliday of Napa is dead—shot by her grandson while playing with a gun. Every week someone is shot, and either killed or injured with an "unload" gun. Still parents will give children guns to play with.

Recently in San Francisco a ten-year-old boy shot his six-year-old brother, another boy shot a little playmate, and another killed himself, all with guns given them by their parents.

Guns are essentially instruments of destruction. They are built for one purpose and that purpose is to kill and destroy life. Rather a dangerous plaything we would think, and one not just adapted to developing the human nature of the boy.

The boy who shoots someone with a gun through an accident is not to blame, but because the shooting was an accident it does in now way remove from the parent who puts a gun in his hands, the blame of the killing.

When parents learn that guns are no more playthings for children than sticks of dynamite, then fatalities from empty guns may be decreased.

A WELCOME PRESENT

GEORGE WASHINGTON never received a present for his birthday with more thankfulness than the people of this county accepted the rain which made February 22 a red letter day in the weather calender. The rain added more than 800,000,000 gallons of water to the Spring Valley lakes and averted for this year the danger of a water famine which seemed imminent.

The rain of the past few weeks has assured beyond any doubt a year of unsurpassed prosperity for this region. Even with the weight of one of the dryest years in history upon it this county has made unprecedented advance in 1924. Now with plenty of water the growth of the county can only be guessed at. But we would guess that 1925 will see great strides in every line of endeavor, and a great era of prosperity.

The Blushing Bride

NEW ORGANIZATION TO PROMOTE COASTSIDE

Last Friday night saw the organization of a body destined to play an important role in the development of an important section of this county if the plans of its organizors are carried out. This is the improvement organization of the coastside district which headed by M. J. Bettencourt is now beginning an active campaign for the progress and improvement of the coastside.

The new organization represents the whole of the fourth and fifth townships of the county, and at its initial meeting, delegates were present from Pescadero, Halfmoon Bay, Moss Beach, San Gregorio and Montara. No name has yet been decided upon for this body, but a committee is now considering the various appelations which have been suggested.

The territory included within the province of this new organization comprises some of the richest land in our county and is the center of one of the finest agricultural districts in this part of the state. The district has suffered, however, from the lack of some central organization such as the present one to foster its interests and promote plans for its advancement. Advertising the advantages of the coastside will be an importnat part of the work of the new organization.

Prominent among the charter members of the organization are the following: Alvin J. Hatch, Halfmoon Bay; Dr. C. L. Morgan, Halfmoon Bay; Supervisor Manuel rancis, Halfmoon Bay; George E. Dunn, publisher of Halfmoon Bay; Horace Nelson, banker; Charles Cavalli, well-known Halfmoon Bay ferchant; J. C. Williamson, pioneer merchant of Pescadero; Dr. C. V. Thompson of Pescadero, supervisor; . L. Lathrop, Pescadero; J. L. Kent, Montara; and Dante Diandi of Moss Beach.

M. J. Bettencourt, cashier of the Bank of the Bank of Halfmoon Bay was elected president and R. Guy Smith secretary of the new body. Committees were appointed to outline various phases of the proposed activities of the organization.

A. McSWEENEY PRESIDES AT TAX COLLECTORS' MEET

Ambrose McSweeney, tax collector of this county and president of the County Tax Collectors Association of California, presided at the meeting of that organization in Los Angeles last Monday.

At this meeting the county tax collectors discussed pending legislation concerning taxes and their collection. Governor Richardson and State Controller Ray L. Riley addressed this meeting, which convened in the Hotel Alexandra in the southern city.

A DANCER WHO HAS INTERVIEWED THE PRESIDENT AND SAYS THAT HE IS NOT SILENT "CAL"

The KITCHEN CABINET

What silences we keep, year after year,
With those who are most near to us and dear!
We live beside each other day by day,
And speak of myriad things, but seldom say
The full sweet word that lies just in our reach
Beneath the commonplace of common speech.

HOUSEKEEPING HINTS

Though the house-cleaning time of spring is yet some weeks ahead, it is a good time to look through linen closets, drawers in dressers and chiffoniers, relining the drawers and making an inventory of supplies. It is a wonderful aid to keep an inventory of supplies and where they may be found. In emergency any one will be able to find them. Make a list of the things that are getting low, so when the opportunity for purchase comes one knows what is really needed.

This is now a good time to make a half-dozen broom bags to use in the cleaning of the walls and floors. These may be made from old outing flannel nightgowns. Make them six inches longer than the broom with a four-inch ruffle at the bottom, which makes them more effective when brushing down walls and moldings.

If troubled with ants, sprinkle tartar emetic around where they seem to come in. As it is a poison, keep it away from pets and food.

Keep a small shallow box or basket lined with newspaper in the kitchen to hold all peelings of vegetables, fruit and egg shells. It is easily wrapped and removed to the garbage pail or incinerator. A paper sack is another good receptacle to hold garbage.

Another large basket to bring up fruit, canned foods and vegetables from the cellar will save many steps. The empty cans may be carried down to the storeroom in the same basket.

Another large basket with a handle will help the housemother in saving strength if it is used to carry up clothes, books, or anything which must be carried up or down. Putting the things in the basket will often save several trips.

While shut in during the rainy or cold weather is a good time to repair all summer clothing and get ready for the days that may be spent out of doors.

Out of the air a substance,
Out of the mind a thought,
From the dim unknown
A hidden truth—
And a miracle is wrought.

This is the world of science;
But science is born
And bred of dreams,
And her spirit is romance.

EGG DISHES

Eggs when plentiful and at a reasonable price should be served in various dishes for luncheon and supper, taking the place of meat.

Green Pepper Omelet.—Wash six green peppers, remove the seeds and white fiber, break into small pieces and saute in four tablespoonfuls of butter until tender. Beat two eggs and add one-fourth cupful of milk, three-fourths cupfuls of grated cheese, salt one-half teaspoonful, and one-eighth teaspoonful of paprika. Cook over a slow fire until the omelet is a golden brown on the bottom. Run a spatula around under the omelet, make a slight incision on opposite sides and fold over. Turn on a hot platter and serve at once. It is a good plan to set the omelet into a hot oven for a minute to insure a good cooking on top, before folding.

Peasants' Omelet.—Melt three tablespoonfuls of butter in a double boiler, add one tablespoonful of flour, and when well-blended and smooth add one teaspoonful of salt and one-eighth of a teaspoonful of pepper. Add one cupful of cold diced potatoes. Beat six eggs until light and pour into a well-buttered omelet pan. Cook slowly, lifting the mixture often at the sides. When the mixture begins to thicken spread over it the hot potatoes. Fold and serve. The potatoes may be moistened very slightly with a cream sauce. String beans, peas or other vegetables may be used, but should be hot when spread over the omelet.

Shirred Eggs.—Blend together one cupful of mashed potatoes, one-half cupful of cooked minced ham, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-fourth teaspoonful of pepper, and one beaten egg; mix well and cover the bottom of a buttered baking dish. Break five eggs over the potato mixture, making a depression to hold each. Dot with bits of butter, dust with salt and pepper and bake until the eggs are firm.

We have not fulfilled every duty unless we have fulfilled that of being pleasant.

THE FAMILY FOOD

During the cold weather the body can use fatty foods and needs them to keep up the heat of the body. This is the season when the hearty foods, boiled dinners, suet and baked Indian puddings, as well as rich cakes, may be used with good results.

Pork Cake.—Take one cupful of finely chopped pork, one cupful of boiling water poured over it; add one cupful of sugar, three eggs, one teaspoonful of soda, two of cream of tartar, one of cinnamon and one-half teaspoonful each of cloves and nutmeg, with flour to make a rather thick batter. Into two cupfuls of molasses put two cupfuls of chopped and soaked dried apple and one-half cupful of raisins; add the spices and simmer three hours on the back of the stove. For the boiling water used in the cake, the water in which the apple was soaked should be used. Mix well and bake slowly like any fruit cake.

Ice-Box Cookies.—These are easily made, as they may be mixed up and rolled one day and sliced and baked the next. Take one cupful each of brown sugar, white sugar, butter, two well-beaten eggs, one teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful of salt and four and one-half cupfuls of flour and one cupful of coarsely chopped nuts, and flavoring to taste. Mix and roll into a roll as round as possible, put on ice or in a cold place over night. In the morning cut into very thin slices and bake while the mixture is still chilled.

If it is possible to get the liquor from well-made sauerkraut, be sure that every tablespoonful is used. It is an invaluable food for the digestive tract, and there is nothing better for the blood. Taken a tablespoonful or two before meals, it is a tonic.

Rabbit Pilauf.—"First catch your hare." Prepare and cut into serving-sized pieces and brown in four tablespoonfuls of lard and butter, adding salt and pepper and one finely chopped onion. Cook ten minutes, then add six tablespoonfuls of consomme, one and one-half pints of boiling water. Cover and cook slowly until the rabbit is tender.

GOOD THINGS FOR EVERY DAY

A nice luncheon dish for the family when there is leftover mashed potato is the following:

Nest Eggs.—Take two cupfuls of mashed potato, well-seasoned and made into flat cakes, hollowed in the center to hold an egg. Wrap strips of bacon around the edge of the potato cake and fasten with a toothpick. Drop an egg into the center and place them in a hot broiling oven, turning the pan or cakes carefully to brown the bacon well. Serve on a hot platter, garnished with parsley.

Southern Shortcake.—Take squares of corn bread, toast and butter them; on each place a slice of ham, then a slice of chicken, and pour over a white sauce to which has been added one teaspoonful of minced parsley and one-half cupful of broken pieces of mushrooms that have been sauted in butter. Serve very hot. Cheese may be added, but if so, sprinkle with the grated cheese and set in the oven to melt.

Spanish Toast.—Cut up two green peppers, a slice of onion, two sprigs of parsley and a cupful of thick tomato sauce. Simmer the mixture until smooth. Toast rounds of bread, butter them and put a spoonful of the tomato mixture on each round of toast, then add a poached egg.

Stuffed Onions.—Take good-sized onions, parboil and take out the centers. Chop the centers and mix with sausage meat, bacon and bread crumbs, or any chopped meat. Fill the centers, pour around them any good broth, or add butter and water. Bake until the onions are tender, basting often. When nearly ready to serve, sprinkle with buttered bread crumbs and bake them until brown.

Scrapple.—Cook corn meal in the broth left from any meat, adding a cupful of the chopped cooked meat. Turn out into a small breadpan to mold and, when firm, use fried, after cutting into slices. Pork is the best-liked meat for this dish.

60 DAYS GIVEN BARBER FOR STRIKING BABY

Beating his seven-months-old baby boy in the face with his fist, resulted in C. E. Wilson, Menlo Park barber securing a six months jail sentence. The sentence is the limit that can be meeted out by a justice of the peace and was given by Justice Ray Griffin Wednesday. Griffin, accompanied the sentence with a scathing lecture in which he told Wilson that he was sorry that the law did not permit him to give a heavier penalty.

The case was the worse, said Griffin that he had met with during his six years as justice of the peace here. The complaint upon which Wilson was arrested was sworn out by his wife, Mrs. Lillian Wilson, who brought the child into court to show the swolen and lacerated face which the child still had from the beating received from its father the day before.

Wilson at first plead not guilty and waived his right to a jury trial. He lated stated that he "tapped" the child because it was crying.

EXTRA
100,000 Extra Credits

Every $15.00 club of subscriptions, either NEW or RENEWALS, will entitle you to 100,000 EXTRA credits in addition to the usual credits at the time each subscription (see regular schedule) is turned in.

This big 100,000 offer coupled with the present liberal schedule, is the biggest and best credit offer of the entire campaign. Subscriptions are worth more credits these next few weks than they ever will be again.

A $15.00 club may include subscriptions of any length of time up to six years.

A candidate has the privilege of turning in more than one club. Two clubs, for instance, would net you 200,000 credits. As soon as you complete your first club, you start on your second.

Subscriptions may be secured anywhere. Candidates are NOT restricted to their own district. You can obtain subscriptions from friends and acquaintances in any district, any town, city or state.

The $15.00 does not have to be turned in all at one time. You can turn in the subscriptions as you secure them. Accurate record is kept at the Campaign Department. The total 100,000 extra credit ballots are issued at the close of the offer for the EXTRA votes due.

This 100,000 offer is the biggest and best offer that will be made.

If you have entered the campaign, here is your chance to make a fine beginning, and you have just started, let this build your way to success. Let this vote offer put you in the lead.

Score shows large percentage of candidates in both districts doing little; big chance Now

EXPIRING SUBSCRIPTIONS PLAY BIG PART IN INITIAL CREDITS SCORE—RENEMALS BIGGEST FACTOR SO FAR—NO BIG LEAD —ANYONE WHO MEANS BUSINESS CAN EASILY FORGE AHEAD —SOME WTHOUT ABILITY ARE DOWNRIGHT LAZY AND WILL FALL BY WAYSIDE—YOUR OPPORTUNITY HERE.

Today, the first credit count in the Times-Gazette great Everybody Wins" competition for two big, handsome, closed motor cars, one big radio set with console and purses of gold and silver are printed. Hereafter the credits standing will be changed each week and will include credits cast till noon of the day before date of publication . Today's credits score is as of Thursday night.

Many expiring subscriptions have been renewed during the past two weeks. That, of course, makes credits. And these credits were cast at the option of the subscriber for some candidate. Sample copies of the announcement of the election, too, have stimulated subscriptions.

That's how it is today. More credits have been cast by subscribers themselves than most candidates have secured.

Not Fair Indication

Neithert he list of candidates nor the recorded credits today is a fair indication of how the race will be. Subscriptions and coupons have been turned in for some who as yet have made no apparent actual effort themselves. Another few have tried to skim the cream. Eventually the campaign will narrow down to the real workers—the real prize winners.

Some candidates there are who will get along very well for a few days. They will bubble over with enthusiasm. But it won't last. They will go out and get their ears "knocked down" once or twice and they'll quit. They haven't got the stuff in them that will urge them on. And rather than admit their deficiency they will come in or write in and say, "I find I haven't got the time." Others will be content to let their friends cast credits for them when they turn in their subscriptions over the counter in the Times-Gazette office. Some will start but will not finish.

Miniature Life's Battle

It is just the battle of life in miniature. Some have it within themselves to be successful. Others can become so with the proper urge. Still others lack confidence in themselves and ability to stick and win.

Really it is regretable that the credits cast are no more than they are. In truth, the present status of this campaign would not justify the Times-Gazette in putting up more than a cheap diamond ring, a flashy watch, a music box or a flivver.

The prizes are extraordinary. Never before have such valuable, such handsome motor cars, or such great prizes been offered in this section of California in a newspaper sales campaign. And yet candidates will lag along, hoping by some miracle that the other fellow will stay asleep and alow them to carry off the prizes without work and without giving a semblance of return to the Times-Gazette. That isn't fair.

New Nominee Could Win

Why, today, an absolutely new candidate can enter this campaign and with a half dozen or so subscriptions, sprint up and gain a clear lead over each and every one now entered. It can be done.

And a candidate now in can do the same thing. There is no handicap. All are on even terms. Work is the governing factor.

For instance, for every club of $15 worth of subscriptions turned in the candidate gets 100,000 extra credits over and above the normal credits which the subscriptions themselves provide. These clubs may be subscriptions from one-half year to six years, or any combination you may wish to work out, just so they total $15 or more.

Five renewal subscriptions would total 60,000 credits. With the extra 100,000 that would be 160,000, and if new subscriptions, 25,000 extra votes for each year would be 285,000.

Then if it is a new candidate, there would be 5,000 credits on nomination and the 20,000 for the first subscription. Thus a new candidate with five one-year subscriptions could today cast 560,000 credits.

Chance For Live Ones

Is there a chance for a new live wire candidate? Is there a chance for a real worker. . You know there is. And there is the same chance for any candidate now entered . All are on even terms.

It is now time to work. Subscriptions mean more credits now than they ever will again. In a few short weeks the credits will be less per subscription. The time to get credits is now—today—when they count for more.

Reduce the Credit Schedule

Contrary to the plan usually followed the Times-Gazette plan call for a reduction of credits as the campaign progresses. In the Times-Gazette campaign the last week is the least important because the subscriptions count so few credits. Live candidates who are on the job ought to be able to cinch one of the cars within the next few weeks, before the credit schedule is cut. It can be done-

Remember, Saturday's credits list will include credits cast up to Thursday noon. The standing published is always of credits received up to noon the day before the date of publication.

Now, if you're "in," get to work. Win. If you are still "thinking" about getting in—get in. You can win.

To Those Who Have Entered

What are you doing to insure yourself of one of the really BIG prizes int he distribution? Are you doing your part—or are you sitting back and hoping your friends will do it all? Up to now the majority of the credits that most of the candidates have received have been cast by subscribers who have been coming into the office in the regular course of business, paying up their Times-Gazette subscriptions and casting the credits to the credit of some one of the nominees. This should not be the case when the value of all the prizes is considered. Every candidate should be doing his or her utmost towards making THEIR prizes as big as possible. If your friends see that you are doing your part they will jump in and help you pile up a winning total; if, however, they see you are unappreciative and are expecting your friends to do it all, they will throw their support elsewhere. It's up to you, candidate. Doing YOUR part, they will jump in and will do theirs.

To Those Who Have Not Entered

To you who are still considering the Gift Distribution, RIGHT NOW is the time to send in your name and make your start. You never had —and never will have such an opportunity for making BIG money quickly WITHOUT INVESTMENT OR RISK as you have in this Times-Gazette $4,000 distribution. Clip out that nomination blank; see that it reaches the Campaign Department immediately. YOU ARE GOING TO REGRET IT IF YOU DON'T. Remember this statement and ACT NOW.

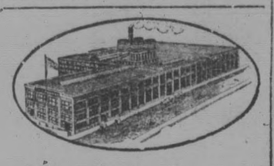
Aztecs Grew Corn

The only related plant with which corn will cross-fertilize is teosinte, a large, semi-tropical grass growing wild in the uplands of Central America and adjoining regions, says Nature Magazine. It is in this country of the ancient Mayas, Aztecs and Incas that the most abundant evidence has been found of early cultivation.



Cleaning Without Odor by the

F. Thomas Process

Our many years of experience has taught us that it is impossible to do perfect cleaning with cheap, inferior methods. That is why we found it necessary to invest nearly $500,000 in the equipment of a plant and the establishment of an expert organization to do the quality of work demanded by our customers.

With the "F. Thomas Process" we not only remove every particle of dust but we return your garments without that usual disagreeable smell of gasoline. Every drop of gasoline we use in cleaning is redistilled and very highly refined.

Raw gasoline—the kind that you buy for your automobile—is full of heavy oils and unfit for cleaning fabrics. It is little better than ordinary distillate and leaves a sickening "gasoline" smell in your clothes

ELINOR GLYN AT LAST HAS FOUND PERFECT LOVERS

Players Have Roles of Fascinating Widow and Romantic Russian Prince

Elinor Glyn, noted authority on love and love making, who, in her writing has described some of the greatest love scenes of all time, acclaims John Gilbert her ideal hero and Aileen Pringle her favorite heroine of the screen.

The two play the leading roles in Mrs. Glyn's "His Hour," which comes to the Sequoia Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, March 4 and 5.

"John Gilbert is my ideal type male lover," says Mrs. Glyn. "He is virile, fascinating, and expresses a deviltry which all women adore. He has finesse, polish, and looks and acts a gentleman, but there is a strongness about him before which all women quaver. When he kisses, he knows just how to kiss, and there is not a woman who sees him as the enchanting Prince Gritzko, who doesn't feel she would like to be loved by him."

"Aileen Pringle," continued Mrs. Glyn, "I first chose as my heroine in the screen version of "Three Weeks." She is agin my choice in "His Hour," in which she plays the English woman, Tamara Loraine. Her chief charm is the fact that she is exquisitely feminine. There is not a mannish or boyish gesture about her.

The love scenes were especially directed by Mrs. Glyn herself. She is world-famous for her series of novels, most of which deal with the subject in such a direct manner, that they have been a matter of universal discussion. As a result, she knows just what audiences like in the way of romance, and her supervision is said to add the final touch of finesse to the picture.

Besides Aileen Pringle and John Gilbert, the other members of the cast of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Production which King Vidor directed are: Emily Fitzroy, Bertram Grassby, Dale Fuller, Mario Cabrillo and Capt. Wilfred Gough.

NORRIS NOVEL IS MADE INTO FILM

"Christine of the Hungry Heart" Is to Be Seen on the Screen Here Next Friday, March 6

Most romantic stories end with a wedding. "Christine of the Hungry Heart," the new Thomas H. Ince picture made for First National, which comes to the Sequoia Theatre next Friday, March 6, begins with a wedding, and the wedding of the heroine, Christine, at that.

But the romance of the story does not end with the wedding, it merely begins at that point. Christine's romance, or romances, lead up to her great secrifice which finally brings her the happiness that every normal woman seeks.

It is a fascinating story, superbly told, with a fine cast including Miss Florence Vidor, in the title role Warner Baxter, Ian Keith, Clive Brook, the English actor, and Walter Hiers, the rotund comedian. It was directed by George Arshainbaud, and adapted from the Kathleen Norris novel of the same name by Bradley King.

DUTCH TYPES MAKE GREAT FILM COMEDY

New Wrinkles to Screen Fun in Colleen's New Film, "So Big"

There are some delightful touches of unusual comedy in Colleen Moore's new picture, "So Big," to be shown at the Sequoia Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, March 2 and 3.

Edna Ferber, the novelist, who wrote the story, laid the scenes in the old Dutch colony which settled near Chicago in the latter quarter of the last century, and through the antics of the stolid old Dutch types, has injected a great quantity of humor into an otherwise serious drama.

In order to extract the most fun out of this side of the play, First National mobilized perhaps the most notable supporting cast which Colleen or any other star ever had. Included is Wallace Beery who, in the role of an old Dutch farmer, has no use for laundries. He wears the same shirt year in and year out.

Also there is Phyllis Haver, of Keystone comedy fame. She plays the role of a vampire of 1890. Ford Sterling, erstwhile Keystone Kop is even funnier as a Dutch farmhand. More fun is added by Dot Farley, as a small town gossip.

Other screen favorites in the cast are John Bowers, Ben Lyon, Jean Hersholt, Sam De Grasse, Gladys Brockwell and Rosemary Theby.

"So Big" is an adaptation from Edna Ferber's novel of that title, and was diercted by Charles Brabin under Earl Hudson's personal supervision.

LEGISLATIVE LETTER

By C. W. TURNER

Sacramento.—The reassembling of the legislature brings once more to the front the very pressing issue of reapportionment. The proposed plans take either the form of constitutional amendments or of ordinary bills, and may be divided into two classes: Those based upon population, in accord with the existing provisions of the state constitution, and those based upon the principle that the cities and great centers of population must not be allowed to control the legislature.

It may be stated right now that the former, though originating in the south and coming from Los Angeles have not the slightest chance of being adopted because they would give control of the state to that section.

Since Los Angeles claims a population twice that of San Francisco, the opponents of that idea, while they are wrong, as the constitution now reads, have the power in the legislature to prevent the south from getting what it is entitled to, and do not propose to let that power slip from their grasp.

The plans which seem to meet with most favor are the one proposed by Assemblyman Helsinger, and the one endorsd and fathered by the federation of agricultural interests. The latter would elect the assemblymen on the basis of population which would mean that that body would be controlled by the cities; but the senate would be in the hands of the "cow counties" on the basis of fifteen senators from the cities to twenty-five from the agricultural sections.

The Helsinger plan would give Los Angeles six senators, San Francisco five; Alameda four; San Diego, Santa Clara and Fresno two each. Sacramento, Contra Costa, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Joaquin, Orange, Kern and Tulare, would have one senator each. The remaining forty-three counties would comprise ten senatorial districts with not more than five counties to any one district.

In the assembly, Los Angeles would have nineteen assemblymen, San Francisco eleven; Alameda would be given eight, Fresno, San Joaquin, San Diego, Santa Clara, Sacramento and San Bernardino would have two each. One assemblyman would be granted to Humboldt, Riverside, Contra Costa, Sonoma, Tulare, Orange, Kern, Santa Barbara, Stanislaus, Imperial, Solano, San Mateo, Butte, Ventura, and Monterey.

The other thirty-four counties would be grouped into sixteen assembly districts with not over four counties to a district.

The opponents of the Helsinger plan point out the complications that would arise when territory was annexed to any given district. Thus, if the present projects for the annexation of San Mateo county to San Francisco carried, or if Los Angeles took in territory outside of the county, various difficulties would need adjusting.

Two pending measures would reduce the number of members of both houses.

In a constitutional amendment proposed by Anderson the assembly would be reduced to forty members and the senate to twenty-six, but that suggestion does not seem to offer a solution to the problem of how the cities are to be kept from control and the question of population not overlooked. Brown has a constitutional amendment which practically reverses the farm federation scheme in that it would allow the senators to be elected on the basis of population, while each county would have one assemblyman.

It is doubtful, however, if the legislature will agree to give the seventy-two voters of Alpine county as much voice in the lower house as Los Angeles or San Francisco and other populous counties of the state.

Los Angeles only introduced the outline of bills at the last session on the subject of apportionment so as to hold places, and have bills before the committee on elections, and just what it proposes is not yet disclosed.

It is understood that as soon as the committee takes up the pending measures Los Angeles will offer amendments to the skeleton bills which will disclose its program. But the members from the southland, while reticent as to exactly what they will propose, make no concealment that their suggestions will be based on population.

It is pointed out that any other scheme would have to be voted on by the people, probably at the election of 1926 in the shape of a constitutional amendment which would not go into effect before 1928. That date would be only two years before the next federal census, when the same questions will arise again.

A business woman's branch of the Burlingame chamber of commerce has been organized by the women of the city, prominent in business and social circles.

The apportionment to all counties of the state for the entire year will amount to $16,128,121.58 for the elementary schools and $4,217,691.75 for the high schools.

Women tennis stars of California will meet an intersectional play at Los Angeles April 4 and 5.

Something to Think About
By F. A. WALKER

LACKING VISION

HE WHO treads in a beaten round, clings to ideas that have been worn threadbare, chooses to follow the lead of others, without investigation of their methods, is not destined by nature to paint a masterpiece, carve a living marble or rise beyond mediocrity in any one of the ordinary fields of human endeavor.

He lacks the fire, the spirit, the divine force that bespeaks mastery and magnificent achievement over space and material.

He is blind to the glorious heights forever calling to the original man or woman who possesses what the world calls vision.

James J. Hill visioned the slumbering wealth of the great Northwest and built a railroad that brought thousands of homes and millions of dollars to farmers, tradesmen and mechanics who sensed his keen perception, but knew not its meaning.

Vision is difficult to demonstrate in words, yet one word defines it—faith!

We can feel it in the personality of the man or woman who has it. We can sense its dynamic thrill in his or her voice. We are stirred to the heartcore by its magnetism and swept along by its invisible force as a flower is whirled downstream to remind the weeds in the regions that beauty, loveliness and grandeur are to be found in enduring abundance up among the hills and productive highlands.

The lifelong and heroic labors of the men and the women of vision are only efforts that count in the world's work; the only labor that endures and gives inspiration to the rising generation; the only labor that keeps the world safely on its upward course.

Our great museums of art and science would be bare were it not for the men and women of vision, who put forth their hands in God's name, march out into the unknown and dare and do, while the incompetent follow the beaten track with never a new thought nor even a new word!

We have but touched the crust of wonderful things that lie all about us in the air, in the sea, in the earth waiting for the men and women with vision to lay them bare and utilize them for the common benefit of mankind.

The great achievements of this age are destined to fade and wither before the grander things yet to come, seen even now by souls given vision by the Omnipotent. Give your vision full rein and drive on in faith.

Undreamed things await you. They shall be your heritage!

The Why of Superstitions
By H. IRVING KING

LOVE AND SHOES

PLACE the heel of one shoe upon the instep of the other for three consecutive nights before going to bed and you will dream of your future husband. That is a common superstition among New England girls. Possibly the superstition obtains also in other parts of the country. It is based upon the old idea of the subjection of the wife to the husband of which a superimposed shoe is symbolical. "Over Edom will I cast my shoe," sang David when he threatened the subjection of the land of the Edomites.

In a pamphlet of the first part of the Seventeenth century it is mentioned as being an ancient custom that "When at any time a couple were married the sole of the bridegroom's shoe was to be laid upon the bride's head implying with what subjection she should serve her husband."

The symbolism is obvious, and in the ancient days when the position of the married woman was one of entire subjection to her husband, one shoe placed upon the top of another would suggest the idea of marriage. Now to primitive man what was associated in thought was associated in fact. Therefore, one shoe placed upon another had an actual connection with marriage by a phase of sympathetic magic. So when the New England girl arranges her shoes with the heels of one upon the instep of the other, the upper shoe represents her future husband's and the lower one her own. The power of sympathetic magic is set working and her future spouse appears to her in a dream.

Mother's Cook Book

Man may be the head of the family, but far better than that, woman is the heart of it.—Punch.

SOMETHING GOOD

THE following stew may be prepared of tame ducks when the wild are out of season:

Stew of Wild Ducks.

Cut up a pair or more of wild ducks as for fricassee, and let boil ten minutes in barely water to cover, with one onion and one carrot cut into slices. Remove the duck meat, drain, dredge with flour mixed with salt and pepper and cook in a little hot fat until brown. Meanwhile add to the water in which the duck was parboiled, a minced shallot, and a bunch of sweet herbs; then put in the brown pieces of duck, cover closely and cook for two hours or until tender. Remove the duck, thicken the liquid with browned flour, one cupful of cream and one well-beaten egg. Stir until the egg is set, pour over the duck meat, garnish with curled celery and slices of lemon.

Sweet Pepper Souffles.

Cut the membranes and remove them and the seeds from four sweet peppers, then parboil. Put through a meat chopper, mix with two tablespoonfuls of fine crumbs, three tablespoonfuls of flour, blended with an equal quantity of cream, stirred into the slightly beaten yolks of two eggs. Season with one-half teaspoonful of salt, a little pepper and a pinch of poultry seasoning. The whole should be as thick as a stiff batter. Add two well-beaten egg whites. Place at once in greased individual molds, or in paper cases, filling them two-thirds full. Bake in a hot oven until well puffed.

For a pretty dessert fill individual pastry shells with whipped cream which has been mixed with a few tablespoonfuls of preserved strawberries. The fresh ones, of course, are preferable when they can be obtained.

NEWS OF MENLO PARK

Blessed Madeline Sophie Barat, foundress of the Madames of the Sacred Heart, a great religious society which has performed valiant work in the cause of Christian education and a branch of which society is located in Menlo Park, will be solemnly enrolled among the Saints of the Catholic church at Rome on May 26. The camonization of Blessed Mother Barat will be a big event in the Holy city. Mother Barat was born in Joigny, France, on December 12, 1779, and passed away in 1865. She was 21 years of age when she was chosen the first superior of the new community of Madames of the Sacred Heart. Later she was chosen because of her eminent virtues and her great wisdom Mother General of the Society of the Sacred Heart. This responsible office she held for the long period of sixty-five years. Her favorite virtue was humility and this gentle virtue exercised so great an attraction for her that she wrote regarding it: "If I cannot be a great saint, at least, I can be very humble."

Peter Bacigalupi, the well-known San Francisco capitalist and merchant, passed away in San Francisco Monday. He was the father of Mrs. Leon Douglass of Menlo Park. He was a pioneer of the city and took no little part in the upbuilding of the great metropolis. Mr. Bacigalupi often visited his daughter here.

Miss Lillian Vincent, a pretty belle of Stockton and a former resident of Menlo Park, spent the week end with her friend, Miss Ruth Walsh.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Douglass left for Europe on the first of the week expecting to be away during the spring and summer months. The winsome bride of a few months ago was the guest of honor at a luncheon given on Saturday by her mother, Mrs. Charles McGettigan. The luncheon took place at the Woman's Athletic Club and was a farewell to Mrs. Douglass. Since their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Douglass have resided in Palo Alto.

The tall lonesome redwood tree at the railroad bridge on the San Francisquito creek has been given a long lease of life by the City of Palo Alto which derives its name from it. The trustees some time ago appropriated a certain sum of money to employ tree doctors and surgeons to give it treatments. All the decayed limbs were removed. The holes in the tree were filled with cement and the roots were treated and all worms and other enemies were estroyed . A concrete wall was placed around it. The wall in the creek to protect it from floods was constructed many years ago by the Southern Pacific Company. This was added to so that there is no danger of the tree being undermined by the stream. It will now shoot shoot forth new branrhes, taking on renewed life and with a promise to stand sentinel for ages to come. The tree lost its twin sister over forty years ago. The two trees grew together and were the same height. The tree succumbed to the ravages of a heavy storm. There is a legend that many years ago a pirate buried a large sum of money near the trees for safe keeping. The peninsula at that time was overgrown with under brush and oaks and these two trees stood as sentinels and beacons for weary travelers. The pirates arriving in San Francisco with their treasurer sought the tall trees as he safest place for their loot until such time as they would return from another voyage of plunder. They never came back. The ship was lost and the pirates went to a watery grave. Many believed the story and when one of the trees fell hundreds came from al sections in search of the hidden gold but it was not found. A few hundred yards from the trees thirty years ago would now yield more than the bag of gold placed at the foot of the giant redwoods by the pirates over a century ago. In the days of the indians the trees were held sacred by them. Their village stood near the site of Palo Alto. The redmen believed that the great spirit dwelt in the branches of the redwoods and approached them with awe. Mothers came and spent hours under the trees with their babies. The sick came to be cured and here too, the war dances took place for the Palo Alto tribe was always at war with a tribe living at Alviso. A pretty story related that a young and beautiful maiden of the former tribe fell in love with a young Alviso man and that they plighted their troth under the branches of the redwoods, their marriage resulting in uniting the warring tribes and they lived in peace and contentment until the white man came and robbed them of their possessions. There are many legends, beautiful in romance, told of these historic trees and it is indeed well that one of them should be preserved for posterity. Some day these beautiful legends will be unfolded in charming and delightful English by some Stanford genius.

The election on Tuesday last by the City of Atherton to annex certain Menlo Park territory was carried unanimously. Twenty voters in the district sought to be taken in voted to become residents of Atherton, the Queen City of the peninsula. The section lopped off from Menlo Park by this election is west of the highway and runs to Valparaiso avenue. Warren school, the Mahoneys, the Moreys and the property of George Walsh and Leon Douglass are included in the territory taken into Atherton.

All the local churches are observing the lenten season by holding special services in their respective edifices several evenings during the week.

All residents of radio-land are preparing to hear President Coolidge's address on next Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. The speech is to be short and to the point. History will be made on that day for it is to be the first time that a president's inaugural address will have been broadcasted. Be sure and listen in so that in years to come you may be able to tell of this history-making event.

Local merchants and business men who are just now experiencing some quiet times and find business dull and are down in the mouth should remember Jonah. He came out all right.

The committees having in charge St. Patrick's day entertainment are working industriously to make the affair a success and have secured some first-class talent from San Francisco to take part. An orator of note is to deliver a short address upon the life and times of St. Patrick, Ireland's patron saint. After the performance the floor will be cleared for a few hours dancing. Monday evening, March 16, has been selected as the date of the entertainment that is to take place in the Hall of the Nativity. Admission 50 cents, children 25 cents. Secure your tickets early and thus avoid the rush of the last days before the big event.

A mammoth live oak that has stood for ages on the E. W. Hopkins' property, now owned by Mr. J. S. McClymont, succumbed to the recent storm and toppled and fell, wrecking about fifty feet of the wire fence on Oak Grove avenue. The monarch of the forest became waterlogged and fell of its own weight.

M. Monohan, well konwn in Menlo Park twenty years ago, passed away in San Francisco last Monday, following a brief illness. The deceased was a native of Ireland, aged 81 years. Up until recently Mr. Monohan had been connected with the management of Golden Gate Park.

The rain fall for the last storm was .83 of an inch, making a total of 9.90 inches for the season. The rain fall is about normal but far ahead of that of last year at this time.

Boyd Braden has purchased the ond hundred feet of land facing on Santa Cruz avenue, adjoining Menlo Theater on the east. Mr. Braden is planning a modern theatre building to be erected upon the property with a seating capacity of 500. The structure will cost over $10,000.

The Misses Rosalie and Jessica Smith entertained a number of their friends at a Valentine party at their home last Saturday evening. There were about twenty guests present.

GIRLS OF '25 DEFEAT TEACHERS
By DALLAS COININE

The lady's faculty basket ball team was defeated by the girls of the class of '25 in an exciting game which resulted in a 7 to 6 victory for the girls. Miss Anderson missed a chance to tie the score when she missed a last minute foul. The score does not designate the real comparison between the two squads. The girls out-classed the faculty in every department of the game and played in tough luck on their close-in shots.

FORMER COUNTY EDUCATOR DIES

Miss Etta M. Tilton, who for many years was connected with the educational interests of San Mateo county, passed away at her home in Carmel Monday and was buried in St. John's cemetery, San Mateo, Wednesday.

Miss Tilton came to San Mateo as a child with her parents. She was educated in the San Mateo school and entered the teaching profession in the Jefferson district at Colma. After several years there she went to Halfmoon Bay, where she remained for several years. She then entered the San Mateo school and soon became principal there. In 1894 she ran against the late John F. Utter for county superintendent of schools and was elected to the position. She was head of the county school system until 1906. Upon leaving her school position here she went to Carmel and made her home with her sister, Miss Minnie Tilton.

Miss Tilton was a cultured and refined woman and wielded a great influence over the boys and girls of the county. She was always ready to help the teachers and was zealous in the educational work. Although she has been away from San Mateo county for a long period of time, she had many friends here who regret her passing.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. J. Moore of Burlingame, and Miss Minnie Tilton of Carmel and a brother, Howard Tilton.
